

Let's Babble

Dear English teachers,

As you may know I have, in the past six months, been uploading articles to our website < hkwtto.org.hk >. Around 80 of these articles have been put together and published as Babbling.

Babbling is about love, parenting, songs, movies, global warming, Canton Road, locusts and a lot more. These articles are of various lengths and can serve as comprehension passages or conversation topics for group interactions.

You are most welcome to contact Ms. Rita Yeung, our Executive Officer for up to 50 copies of Babbling for your students. Simply fill in the form attached and arrangements will be made for you to collect them at our office.

I am eagerly looking forward to your kind support of my endeavour to share.
Pauline

Dear teachers,

Have you read my recent publication Babbling? Some teachers who have read it said to me that they had itchy “fingers” as well! I felt so encouraged! I am now calling upon all teachers, male or female, to contribute articles. We all have stories to tell, thoughts to share and views to articulate! And if we do not write them down, they will be gone!

When around 80 articles are collected, we will publish them. The title is simply Let's Babble!

I am eagerly awaiting your sharing.
Pauline
